

THE DETROIT FREE PRESS: SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 1910.

DETROIT IN 1849
By C.M. BURTON

The First German Reformed church, a plain brick building, was situated at the corner of Croghan (Monroe) and Beaubien streets. The land (lot 137) was not owned by the society until 1851.